

Isabel Murphy (Norway)

Casting Consultant, The Norwegian National Opera and Ballet (Oslo)

Isabel Murphy is a freelance Opera Consultant and Casting Advisor. She is currently Artistic Advisor for Den Norske Opera & Ballett in Oslo and for the new production of The Ring at the Longborough Festival Opera.

She is regularly invited to be a jury member at the international singing competitions - most recently at the Wagner Society in London and at The Bruce Millar Singing Competition in Glasgow. Later this year, she is returning for the third time as a panel member for the BBC Cardiff Singer of the World Competition travelling extensively to select the twenty finalists for the Competition in 2019. She is on several advisory panels for Opera in the UK and is a judge for the eminent Opera Awards.

She has enjoyed an extensive career working in opera: Director of Artistic Administration for Welsh National Opera; Casting and Contracts Manager for English National Opera and Education Officer for Kent Opera. She has also worked as Music Officer for Opera and New Music for Arts Council England and for several music institutions of Australia.
